- 5. This is a coach-style support for undergraduate students based on their program and level of Italian knowledge, tests, and finals.
- 6. Italian for travel is a fun, brief course about Italian things you need to know while traveling. A variety of simple but useful materials will be used and provided to our students. No much grammar involved, just basic sentences. In person. It may be with other institutions.
- 7. This class is a continuation of beginner1, same format and textbook.
- 8. Beginner 1 for students with no previous knowledge of Italian.

Please send the completed form with check payable to Tuscany Language Academy and mail to TLA, 5522 Comanche Way, Madison, 53704. Call or text for inquiries.

Previous exposure to foreign languages

I understand that recording a class without permission, or taking pictures is not allowed under any circumstances. The privacy of our students and teachers is a priority. During Zoom classes, screens must be on and facing the teacher, learning a language is not a corporate meeting, it requires participation, attention towards other students, and visual exposure. Fees are due by the first day of class, unless otherwise discussed with Stella.
